The solid line represents communication and coordination. During a major emergency or disaster, the Emergency Management Task Force (in the Emergency Operations Center) coordinates all resources and major actions.

The dashed line represents resource movement. University departments and community emergency responders will use resources but coordinate through the Emergency Operations Center.